

■ Two 5,000-square-foot professional buildings are under construction near an entrance to Hometown NRH. Ellis & Tinsley of Fort Worth is developing the site, which is scheduled to be completed in November, according to the Web site.

■ The Pavilion plans 11 garden offices ranging from 3,200 square feet to 5,700 square feet, according to the Web site of the developer, Phifer & Associates of North Richland Hills.

■ Home Town NRH executives are planning medical and professional offices in the development, possibly breaking ground by the end of the year, Gietema said.

*Andrea Jares, 817-548-5522
ajares@star-telegram.com*
